the Centre for European Studies (European Union Centre of Excellence)
at Carleton University, and the British High Commission in Ottawa have the pleasure to invite you to a reception and book launch on the publication of

Coping with Global Environmental Change, Disasters, and Security

This policy-focused Global Environmental and Human Security Handbook by European and international researchers addresses new security threats, challenges, vulnerabilities and risks posed by global environmental change and disasters to Europe, its neighbours, and countries round the world.

Statements by two of the book's editors and a contributor will be followed by an open round-table discussion.

Date: Monday, March 14th, 2011

Time: 5:00 pm - 6:30 pm

Location: British High Commission, 80 Elgin Street, Ottawa
